The International Organization of Scenographers,
Theatre Architects and Technicians (OISTAT)

Dear colleagues and friends,

We are glad to invite you to the International Museum Forum in Moscow “World Theatre Heritage; Preservation and Representation in the Museum Space” dedicated to the 125th anniversary of the A.A. Bakhrushin State Central Theatre Museum and the Year of the Theatre in the Russian Federation.

Today, the museum founded on October 29, 1894 by a prominent public figure, famous Moscow industrialist and philanthropist Alexey Alexandrovich Bakhrushin, possesses more than 1.5 million exhibits. These are costume and set designs by outstanding masters, photographs and portraits, stage costumes of great actors, programs of plays, rare publications on theatre art, objects of decorative and applied arts and many other objects.

You can find more information about the Museum on the official website:
www.gctm.ru

Please, find attached the Information letter of the Forum.

For more details, please do not hesitate to forward your queries to the e-mail:
